

Please! Monopolies are all over the country now. In the long run, they can only hurt this country. Ideas, genius, etc., come mostly from the grass roots level. There are already enough corporate conglomerates, and there needn't be any in the media.